Purposeful Writing

(Creative Writing The Phonics
Dance Way)

With Presenter and Author Ginny Dowd
A Writing Workshop: Grades 1 - 2

Did you know that there are 11 different ways your student might be asked to write on an achievement test? This workshop will create successful, confident young writers in your classroom. See how you can use literature as a springboard for any good writing program. You'll learn quick and easy strategies to get everyone in your classroom fired-up for writing! Learn an effective way to incorporate phonics instruction across the language arts curriculum. Discover effective ways to use the hunks and chunks to enhance creative writing. Explore word wall strategies that not only introduce and review high frequency words but reinforce Language Arts concepts. Ginny demonstrates how you can give your writing lessons a purpose to improve skills in writing research, poetry, letters, fiction and much more. Plus, learn how literature can be the perfect springboard to start your whole class writing. Explore the ways children write as you discover new writing activities to engage every level of writer in your classroom. You'll learn specific skills to assist your learners as they continue to develop as writers. This workshop will make the writing experience fun for both you and your students even if you have never attended a Phonics Dance Workshop,

Cost of this five hour workshop: $150.00 which includes a digital download practice packet along with the 400 page Creative Writing manual.

If you are a primary grade teacher you do not want to miss this opportunity!
